Where Does “We Shall Overcome” Come From?

“We shall overcome,
We shall overcome,
We shall overcome, some day.
Oh, deep in my heart,
I do believe
We shall overcome, some day.”

<https://youtu.be/7aku0Fp-ET8>

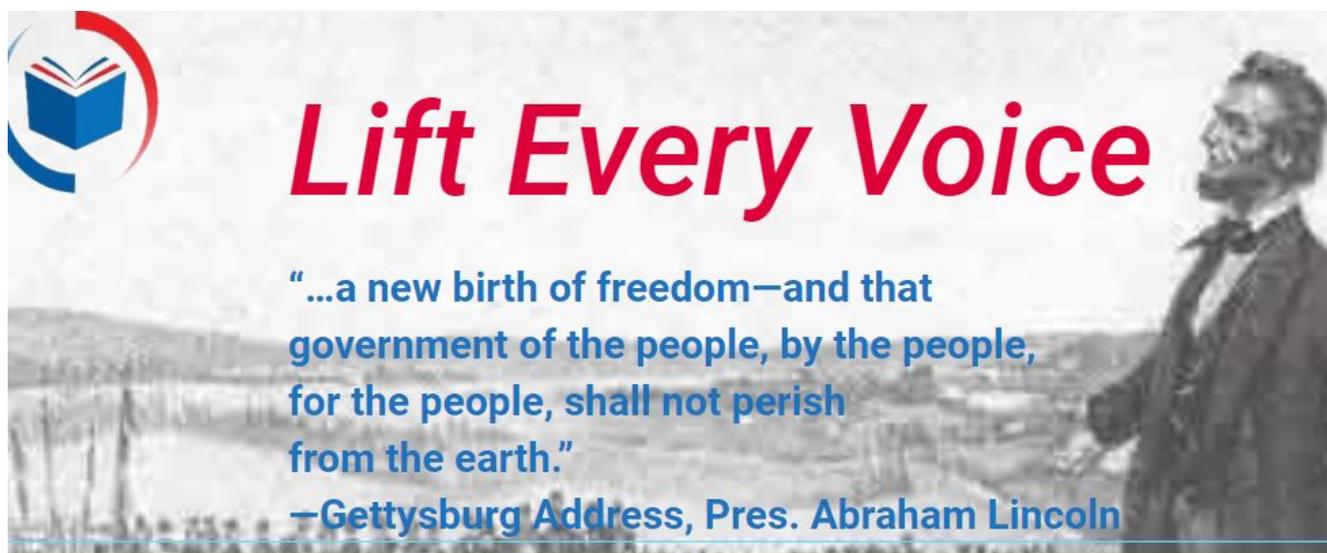

" "We Shall Overcome" is a gospel song which became a protest song and a key anthem of the American civil rights movement. The song is most commonly attributed as being lyrically descended from "I'll Overcome Some Day", a hymn by Charles Albert Tindley that was first published in 1901. The modern version of the song was first said to have been sung by tobacco workers led by Lucille Simmons during the 1945–1946 Charleston Cigar Factory strike in Charleston, South Carolina. Later it was published under the title "We Shall Overcome" in an edition of the People's Songs Bulletin by Pete Seeger."

Voices Institute is Committed to Supporting Children, Young People, and Adults in Our Country and Around the World to Lift Their Voices to Overcome the Obstacles that Divide Us and to Advocate for a More Compassionate, Just, and Free Democratic Country and World!

Voices Institute provides two educational websites: Lift Every Voice and Voices Free Online School. The Lift Every Voice Website includes Lift Every Voice Books which provide background information on democratic values, skills, and knowledge. In the Lift Every Voice Projects, you can apply these democratic values, skills, and knowledge to some of the most important social and ecological problems of our day.

These projects conclude with delivering a speech advocating a solution to these problems. The Voices Free Online School provides Lift Every Voices Minicourses in which you can explore these democratic competencies and social and ecological problems in more depth.

Eight Steps for Lifting Our Voices

Lift Every Voice

How can we lift our voices to advocate for a more compassionate, just, and free country and world?

Voices Institute

Lift Every Voice Projects are organized into Eight Steps. In Step 1: Connect to the Problem you can explore what you know or have experienced about the problem. In Step 2: Compare and Evaluate Case Studies, you try to get a handle on the problem by delving into case studies of the problem. While in Step 3: Analyze the Data, the objective is to get a broad understanding of all the facts related to the problem, then in Step 4: Listen to and Share Stories, you can listen to the stories of those affected by the problem and share your own study. Step 5: Listen to and Read Proposals begins the process of choosing your proposal by getting a broad understanding of state and local legislative proposals as well as the proposals of advocacy organizations. In Step 6: Develop and Present Your Proposal, you will develop your proposal, write out your speech, and deliver your speech on video. After that in Step 7: Discuss and Debate Proposals, you can listen to and discuss other people's speech and see if you can reach a compromise and common ground on how to solve the problem. Finally in Step 8: Lift Your Voice, Cast Your Votes, you will have the opportunity to vote on all the proposals and to lobby elected officials to support your proposal.

How Can We Save and Build Our Democratic Country?

By Advocating for a More Compassionate, Just,
and Free Democratic Country and World!

We envision young people and adults anywhere being able to go online and listen to empowering stories and speeches, share their own stories, deliver their own speeches, and discuss their thoughts with other young people and adults about the best ways to create more compassionate, just, peaceful, and free democratic governments and societies.

Hopefully, Lift Every Voice will help us save and strengthen and improve our democracies.

The better angels of our nature are the democratic values that we embrace and which can guide us as we seek to heal and unite our country!

“Our history is defined by the youthful push to make America more just, more compassionate, more equal under the law. This generation—of Parkland of Dreamers, of Black Lives Matter—embraces that duty. If they make their elders uncomfortable, that’s how it should be. Our kids now show us what we’ve told them America is all about, even if we haven’t always believed it ourselves: that our future isn’t written for us, but by us.”

—Excerpted from “Cameron Kasky, Jaclyn Corin, David Hogg, Emma Gonzalez, and Alex Wind” by Barack Obama. Time Magazine (12/12/18)

How Can We Support the Growth of Democracy?

How Can We Save Our Democracy?

How Can We Restore the Soul of America?

You can support the growth of democracy in our country and around the world by helping young people and adults anywhere gain free online access to Lift Every Voice.

Lift Every Voice can help young people and adults to master core democratic competencies with a primary emphasis on using their voices to tell their stories and to deliver speeches advocating for ways to create a more just and democratic society wherever they live.

The mastery of these competencies can empower young people to overcome the social obstacles in their lives, to attain important personal goals, and to contribute to creating more compassionate, just, and free societies.

The growth of democracy in any one country is limited by the growth of democracy worldwide.

The growth of democracy anywhere fosters the growth of democracy everywhere.
